DAY 1: Arrive into BOGOTA

A host and a driver will be waiting for you at Bogota Airport. Your host is a local who will introduce you to Bogota, and serve as a guide, translator and concierge. Enjoy the remainder of the afternoon at leisure.

Founded in 1538 this cosmopolitan city of almost 8 million people, sits high up in the Andes Mountain Range – 8,660 feet (2,640 meters) above sea level. As the third highest capital city in South America. Before the Spanish arrival, various indigenous tribes inhabited Bogota and the region surrounding it. Remnants of these tribes can be seen in Bogota's spectacular gold museum and in the traditions of the small rural communities. Bogota has been the epicentre of Colombia's dramatic yet fascinating history, so visiting it is the best way to understand the country's tough past and recent revival.

DAY 2: BOGOTA'S HISTORIC DISTRICT & MUSEUMS (B)

Travel through the winding streets of La Candelaria accompanied by a history expert and live the stories behind the streets, plazas, cathedrals and street art pieces you will see along the way. Your guide will not only give you an insight into the country's history and architecture, but also into Colombia's political and economic revival. Your next activity continues after your lunchbreak, visiting some of Bogota's most important museums such as Botero Museum and the Gold Museum.

In the evening, enjoy an exclusive dinner talking history, culture and the thrilling issues the country has faced with a political and economic expert of the country (cost of meal not included).

DAY 3: BOGOTA – COFFEE REGION

Your chauffeur will drive you to the airport from where you will take a short flight to Pereira.

The Coffee Triangle is not a city or a particular place. It is a beautiful blend of lush mountains, rich culture and incredibly kind people. The triangle consists of three states Quindio, Caldas and Risaralda. This region sits high up on the western Andes mountain range, where the altitude, climatic conditions and fertile terrain induce the production of what many consider to be the best coffee in the world.

DAYS 4: EXPLORE THE COCORA VALLEY & PLAY TEJO IN SALENTO

Today we explore the heart of the coffee region. Among the beauties of the Valle del Cocora, you will have a chance to admire the towering 60-meter palm trees and the lush colourful surroundings, as well as some of the locals who live by. Thanks to this site, the wax palm tree was recognized as the official tree of Colombia, and classified as a protected species.

Spend the rest of the day exploring the towns of Salento, quaint little town in the heart of the coffee region and part of the UNESCO world heritage site of the Coffee Cultural Landscape of Colombia. There, get to play Tejo, the famous regional sport. Your tour continues then to Finlandia, an authentic colonial Andean town in the mountains where you will still be able to witness this unique Andean culture.

DAYS 5: COFFEE REGION – CARTAGENA

Your private driver will be waiting for you at your hotel and will take you to the airport where you will take your flight to Cartagena.

Cartagena, founded by Spanish explorers in 1533, is a stunning example of Spanish colonial architecture, African culture and Amerindian heritage. Its picturesque historic centre is enclosed by impressive fortifications that protected the city from pirates, but they now provide unparalleled views of the ocean. To top it off, Cartagena is the cultural hub of Colombia. Boasting premier literature, music and film festivals, along with traditional cultural celebrations, there is always something to see and do. Whatever you want, Cartagena has it all.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

DAY 9: TAYRONA REGION

Your private driver will be waiting for you at the lobby of Casa San Agustin and will drive you to your next destination in the Tayrona Region.

The Tayrona National Park is located 4.5 hours driving from Cartagena, between white sand beaches and the foothills of the impressive Sierra Nevada. It is famous for its lush vegetation, beautiful virgin beaches and extraordinary biodiversity. The Tayrona region gets its name from the ancient Tayrona tribe, which ruled this area for many years. The original Tayrona civilization almost disappeared once the Spanish colonizers settled in Latin America in the 17th century. Part of it remains strong and alive through 4 indigenous tribes in the region who still maintain the culture, language, religion and traditions they inherited from the original Tayronas.

After having settled in your hotel room, drive to the Don Diego region (approximately 30 minutes). After a 20-minute walk into the jungle, you will arrive at a river bank from where you will float down a crystalline river all the way down to the ocean. Along the way you will find exuberant vegetation, exotic birds and howler monkeys that will make this “mini river safari” worth it.

For those with more physical endurance...

Drive to Tayrona Natural Reserve's Calabazo entrance (25 minutes). Trek to Chairama (Pueblito), the ruins of a small pre-Columbian indigenous city. You will be accompanied by a Wiwa tribe member who can provide insight into the history of the ruins and the tribe's current culture, religion and traditions. Continue the walk down to the beautiful beaches of Cabo San Juan in Parque Tayrona. The trek is approximately 5-6 hours along an ancient path built by the Tayronas, and requires physical endurance. (Duration: full-day)

DAY 11: CULTURAL EXCHANGES WITH AN INDIGENOUS COMMUNITY IN TAYRONA

Drive to the area of Rio Ancho, where the Sierra Nevada Mountains meet the Caribbean beaches of La Guajira Department. Alongside an English-speaking guide and a member of the Kogui tribe, walk 2-hours beside the river banks of Ancho River, and arrive at a large Kogui village, hidden in the midst of this mountain range. Explore the village and learn about the Koguis' traditions, beliefs and role as the elder brothers that protect Mother Nature.
