ITINERARY

DAY 1: KIGALI

You will be met at the airport by your guide and transferred to your hotel in Kigali. Depending on your arrival time you may want to relax or opt to start your adventure with a tour of Kigali.

Take a guided walking city tour of Kigali to familiarize yourself with the area. The tour includes a visit to a busy local market and the sampling of some local produce. You will also have the opportunity to relax in a local milk bar, the Rwandan equivalent to a coffee shop! An afternoon visit to the Genocide Memorial Museum is also possible. While this is a tough experience it provides an opportunity to both understand the history of this tragic event and also to pay your respects at the memorial. Furthermore it outlines the current efforts being made to create a brighter future for all Rwandans.

With your personal input your guide will arrange a hike that is the right option for you; there are several options for different abilities so everyone can experience the trekking in the park. You can choose to walk the Canopy Trail, approximately a 2 hour trail through the forest that includes the “canopy walk”.

This refers to a foot bridge located 50m high, and around 90m long, high above the forest. Not for the faint hearted but worth it for the views! In the afternoon check in at your hotel.

DAY 5: NYUNGWE - KARONGI

An early start (around 5am) for your chimpanzee tracking experience! Drive to Cyamudongo Forest, a reserve located approximately an 1½ hours from Nyungwe which has an habituated population of chimpanzees. After meeting up with your tracker you will head out to into the forest in search of the chimpanzees and then spend an hour observing them in the forest. As our closest living relative, chimpanzees share 98.7% DNA, it's an exhilarating experience to observe them in the wild. Chimpanzees communicate with pant hoots, screams, and by hitting the tree buttress so you may hear them before you actually see them!

The length of the walk and the time taken to find the group will vary, so prepare for a long walk through the forest. The chimpanzees can be seen as they move through the tree canopy, or as they travel along the forest floor.

After your time with the chimpanzees you will drive on towards Lake Kivu for a late lunch. Your arrival time depends on the length of the mornings activities but you may have an opportunity to enjoy a sunset kayak on the lake and perhaps see the fishermen in their boats as they head out for the night.

Lake Kivu is Rwanda's largest lake and the sixth largest in Africa. After breakfast you will have a safety briefing on kayaking guidelines and procedures before heading out in your kayak. Lake Kivu naturally has no hippos, or crocodiles, making it a safe area for kayaking. It is also beautiful being surrounded by hills with very little obvious development. After a couple of hours of kayaking you will arrive at a small uninhabited island where fruit bats nest, sometimes they can be seen circling above the island. Take a leisurely lunch before you continue kayaking on to another uninhabited island where you will camp for the night. The crew of your support boat will have set up your tents and they will prepare your meal whilst you relax on the lakeshore.

After breakfast at your camp site there is another opportunity for kayaking on the lake towards Rushel Kivu Lodge (approximately a distance of 2 hours). At the lodge you will transfer your bags from your support boat to your vehicle and then continue on to Cyimbili by motor boat for lunch. This afternoon you can choose to either walk a section of the Congo Nile Trail OR take a tour of the coffee fields and production plant (option to be decided in advance). Coffee production is an important source of income for the local economy.

Continue your journey by motor boat towards Gisenyi and arrive in time to see the town fisherman heading out for the evening, and as they do so hear them sing. The fishermen spend the night on the water, their 3 vessels linked together with poles and nets to catch the fish, and hearing them singing as they paddled out for the night is a surprisingly moving experience. Gisenyi (renamed Rubavu in 2006) is a popular resort town with both Rwandans and visitors. (NB: The fishermen's schedule is subject to change due to their schedule and the weather). Overnight Paradis Malahide Hotel or similar.

DAY 8: GISENYI - MUSANZE

After breakfast you will travel to Musanze by road, approximately a 2 hour drive. Musanze is the third largest town in Rwanda, and as the closest town to the Volcanoes National Park it's a convenient base from which to track the mountain gorillas. Set at a fairly high altitude (1850m) you will see the horizontal line along the volcanoes distinguishing where the farm land ends and the forest begins.

Meet with your mountain bike trail guide and familiarise yourself with your bike before heading out on a ride that will last approximately 1½ - 2 hours. Your guided route will take you through settlements and past fields. This is a great way to familiarize yourself with the landscape and say hello to the locals! Eco-bikes are available for the tour if preferred (please request in advance). After a local lunch you will have the afternoon at leisure. You can spend time relaxing at your hotel, exploring the town, or visiting the Karisoke exhibit to learn about Dian Fossey's work in the area. Enjoy an evening meal at your hotel.

The Mukungwa River banks are abundant with birds, over 40 species have been recorded, and it's a great way to observe the countryside at a relaxing pace and see Rwanda from a different perspective.

DAY 10: VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK - KIGALI

An early start today as you will track mountain gorillas!

Take an early morning short drive to Kinigi, where the Volcanoes National Park headquarters are located, you need to be there by 7am or you risk invalidating your precious permits! You will then be introduced to your park guide who will take time to explain where exactly you will be trekking, which gorilla group you have been assigned to track and the guidelines you needed to follow when in the mountain gorilla's presence.

Around 8am you will start trekking through the fields and farm land surrounding the park until you reach the border of the Volcanoes National Park.

Trekking is at elevations of 2500-3000m, so at times breathing can become a conscious effort as you move through the thick vegetation towards the gorillas. The distance you walk is entirely dependent on the mountain gorilla group movements.

Excitement mounts as you approach the group and finally get to enjoy your time in their presence. Your guide will reassure and calmed the gorillas with deep grunts, and you will be encouraged to do the same. After an hour with the Mountain gorillas you will trek back to Kinigi. After your trek you will enjoy a well earned lunch before making the return journey to Kigali. The transfer time to Kigali is approximately a 3 hours.
