CRATER ADVENTURE

Inspired by the UK's Three Peaks Challenge we thought we'd create our own three peak adventure without the pressure of a race but not without some testing treks! We've allowed a leisurely three weeks to explore several varied and beautiful volcanic landscapes and interspersed them with a heavy dose of wildlife, jungle, lakes, rivers, colonial cities and cloud cloud forests. Short on time- you can always do two weeks, even one – but our three themed trip in full also covers three countries in three weeks including the delightful, undiscovered paradise of El Salvador's volcanic national parks.

COSTA RICA, NICARAGUA AND EL SALVADOR an overview

Eco-diversity like no other - Costa Rica encases 500,000 different species which account for roughly 4% of the world's plant, insect and wildlife species. Witness Sloths, Monkeys, Frogs, Snakes, Turtles, Iguanas, Humming Birds and so much more. Wander through tranquil bird-packed cloud forests and rich rainforests brimming with a plethora of spectacular wildlife. As well as its head-turning abundance of wildlife, this Central American paradise is famed for its never-ending activities, making it an adventure-seeker's dream; the vast array of activities widely on offer include Zip-lining, White-Water Rafting and Trekking.

Nicaragua is the largest nation in Central America with amazing natural diversity. Coffee is the country's largest export which grows in the temperate, shaded Northern most mountains of the highlands. In the South the vegetation is more tropical as low lying rainforests and palms bend towards the sea. The west has world-famous surf and gorgeous beaches. Inland from the coast is the famous Cordillera Volcanica, offering an epic sight and trekking at all levels. Between the coast and the volcanoes stunning colonial cities pepper the interior around Lake Nicaragua and Lake Managua.

El Salvador is the smallest country in Central America but has it all! It's the perfect destination in which to get 'off the beaten track' and stay there as it remains relatively undiscovered. The beaches have world class surf and are often used for competitions. Routes of small villages dot the central valley – each with their own identity producing their own craft and foods. National Parks are awe-inspiring with crater views and flora and fauna to rival any destination in the world.

ITINERARY

DAY 1: Welcome to Costa Rica

WELCOME TO COSTA RICA!

Our driver waits you outside the airport building holding a sign with your name on it. From him you will receive the vouchers that you will need for your trip in Costa Rica as well as a map and information about the country. In about 40 minutes he takes you to your hotel in the center of San José.

San José is the capital of Costa Rica and the political and economic heart of the country. Due to its location at an altitude of 1200 meter above sea level it has a temperate climate; the average temperature is about 25°C. The city became important after the independence of Costa Rica in 1821. For this, therefore, you will not find many colonial buildings in its center. Its charm however comes from the laid back 'Tico' (people from San Jose) atmosphere that can be enjoyed in the streets and the cities numerous parks, fiestas and markets. A visit to the National Theatre, the Central Market or the famous Gold museum in the center will give you a taste of downtown San Jose. The vibrant neighborhood of Barrio Escalante is perfect for dining after a day of exploration.

DAY 2: Arenal Volcano

La Fortuna is a well-known touristic center situated in the Northern Lowlands, in the shadow of the most famous volcano of Costa Rica: El Arenal. The village gained much popularity during the period of extreme activity of the volcano (1968 -2010). The red lava flowing from its slopes was clearly visible by night in these times. Despite the fact that the giant is dormant now, the surrounding natural attractions are of such beauty that La Fortuna remains one of the most visited places in Costa Rica. National Park Arenal with its old lava flows, the hanging bridges that provide unforgettable views of the rainforest and of course the natural hotsprings are all great to visit. Furthermore, La Fortuna is an excellent base for excursions to Lake Arenal and the northern wetlands of Caño Negro.

Shuttle transfer from San José to La Fortuna

After pick up in the morning you will drive over the PanAmerican Highway for about an hour before turning northward into the highlands. A beautiful through the rural countryside follows. At the end of the morning the mighty silhouette of the Arenal volcano looms in the background. Distance: 140 km. Average travel time: 3 hrs. This is a shared service.

The following options can also be arranged

- Visit one of the hot-springs around the volcano and have a relaxing couple of hours.
- Make a tour by kayak over Lake Arenal and enjoy the beauty of the surroundings
- Set out for a search of the sloth, one of the most emblematic animals of Costa Rica. It is almost guaranteed that you will find one: either the two toed, or the three toed sloth.

DAY 4: Rincon de la Vieja

Shuttle transfer from La Fortuna to Rincón de la Vieja

A beautiful ride today with much contrasts. You drive all along the northern shore of the artificial Lake Arenal. At the town of Tilarán you already have crossed the watershed that divides the Atlantic and Pacific side of the country. Then you take the Panamerican Highway heading northward in the direction of Nicaragua.

After having passed the capital of the province of Guanacaste, Liberia, you ascend on the flanks of the Rincón de la Vieja volcano with its spectacular vegetation.

Overnight Hotel Hacienda Guachipelin or similar

Hotel Hacienda Guachipelin is located on one of the largest private properties in Costa Rica. Formerly a big cattle ranch, the owners renovated the ranch into an eco-hotel and adventure center. There are many on-site activities to do. The hot springs where guests without costs can take a mud bath are very popular. There is a spectacular zipline tour and of course, horse riding. Sunset tours are particularly atmospheric.

The property gives access to the main entrance of the National Park Rincón de la Vieja (closed on Mondays). A visit is very much recommended. There are various trails that lead along geological activities of this active volcano, like boiling mudpots and a mini volcano. With luck you will see the white faced capuchin monkeys eating in the giant trees of the park.

DAY 5: Rincon De La Vieja

Rincón de la Vieja forms part of the 'Mountain Range of Guanacaste' in the northern part of Costa Rica. It is an active volcano which from time to time has an eruption. The main access to the area is via the town of Liberia and the villages Curubandé and Cañas Dulces. Nature in this area contrasts starkly with the rain-, and cloudforests of the Atlantic side of Costa Rica and the South Pacific. Here dominates the tropical dry forest where trees drop their leaves in the hot summer and a savannah like vegetation prevails. It is an entirely different ecosystem. The main attraction in the area is the National Park. Visitors enjoy here the stunning beauty of tropical dry forest combined with volcanic activity in the form of boiling mud pots and mini-volcanos. Two rangers stations, las Pailas and Santa María, offer extended trails for hikers but also a path around the volcanic activity that is suited for all visitors. The park is closed on Mondays Hotels in the area offer treatments with volcanic mud that is said to have therapeutic characteristics.

Welcome to the country of lakes and volcanoes! At the beginning, one of our representatives will meet you in Peñas Blancas to transfer you to San Jorge's port. Upon arrival in San Jorge you will receive assistance to board the ferry to Ometepe Island and stayed in your hotel.

Isla De Ometepe

Once thought to have been the promised land by Aztec explorers, Isla de Ometepe is made up of two imposing volcanic cones rising out of western Lake Nicaragua. Ometepe has been inhabited for thousands of years due to its fertile volcanic soils, and evidence of its past can be found in archeologic sites dotted all around the island. Most travelers come here for the sandy beaches, clean waters, diverse wildlife and stunning scenery, with numerous forests, waterfalls and springs in the island's center. Ometepe is beautiful, unique and one of Nicaragua's lesser-known highlights.

DAY 7: Hiking the Concepcion or Maderas Volcano

After breakfast at your hotel we give you an option of Maderas or Concepcion volcano. Both are challenging but with a reasonable level of fitness both are achievable. Concepcion is a lot more exposed and generally considered the more challenging of the two.

Maderas Volcano Hike

The adventure starts at 5:30 in the morning with the pick up at the hotel, in order to head towards Finca Magdalena, where the hike to the dormant Maderas volcano begins, a traditional community farm situated at the eastern slope of the volcano. While in the farm and the property, several pre-Columbian remnants are encountered. The climb is quite steep and difficult, but the trail is well-kept, a good physical condition is required, as the hike to the summit takes around four hours. At the summit you can oversee the mystical crater lake, and on a clear day you have wonderful views of the island; moreover, during the climb white-faced and howler monkeys may accompany you, rustling in the leaves, curiously observing hiking humans!. Once it's time to ascend, prepare for another 4 hours of hike to get to the base of the volcano, then you are taken to the hotel.

Concepcion Volcano Hike

Early in the morning you head for the foot of the impressive and active volcano Concepción. From Urbaite, you start the climb, passing coffee and banana plantations. Stunning nature and great views can be expected on the way up, but be prepared for a tough day of climbing. After passing the treeline, the sun can be very strong so important to take protection but the views get even better. It is necessary to climb over rocks for the last part, as the trail gets rather rough and difficult. From the summit, the sky is clear and the views are superb. Seeing sulfur smoke getting up from the crater is a magnificent and satisfactory thrill.

Granada

Granada, or the "Gran Sultana", is one of Latin America's most beautiful cities, and is listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Founded in 1524 on the shores of vast Lake Nicaragua, this ancient town is full of history and Spanish colonial charm, and is famed as one of the oldest European settlements in the western hemisphere. Amongst the narrow streets and glorious architecture, you'll find some excellent hotels, fine restaurants and plenty of interesting sites and museums to fill your days. The city also makes a great base for exploring the surrounding area, with volcanos, beaches, national parks and the incredible waterworld of Las Isletas de Granada all within easy reach.

As you navigate through the calm waters around these 365 islets, you can spot species of birds and other wildlife that lives around this vast lake, and you'll also pass by local fishing communities and see their daily lives unfold. Masaya

From hand-woven hammocks to terra cotta pottery, furniture, and musical instruments, Masaya specializes in most everything creative. The department of Masaya is also home to Nicaragua's most accessible volcano, Volcano Masaya. If the wind is blowing in the right direction, you might even get close enough to smell the sulfur emitting from this very active volcano. Hiking trails allow visitors to further explore the national park. Be sure to visit the museum at the bottom of the park. Another interesting site in the area is the historical fortress, El Coyotepe. Built in 1893 and used as a prison during the Somoza regime, the dungeons and fortress can now be explored on a guided tour led by the Boy Scouts. This historical site is also great for its breathtaking views.

Lava Night Tour

Masaya Volcano National Park is one of the most famous volcanoes in the Pacific region of Nicaragua due to its constant activity, and was known to the Spanish at the "Mouth of Hell". It offers the unique experience of seeing an active volcano up close, and watching as molten lava glows in crater just meters away from you. It's an awe-inspiring experience allowing visitors to experience a phenomenon once sacred to the pre-Columbian Nicaraguans, who were inspired by the raw power and beauty of nature.

Not only will you see these gargantuan summits, you will also see the beauty of the breathtaking scenery displaying the Gulf of Fonseca, Honduras and El Salvador. The passage to the top is not considered easy. It is actually the most challenging volcano in Nicaragua to climb. It will take you one whole day to do the ascending and descending trip.
