WILDLIFE ADVENTURE

If you are looking at family holidays to Borneo, then this trip combines the best of Tanjung Puting National Park's orang-utan research stations and rehabilitation centres with trekking and camping deep in the Borneo rainforest. On our family adventure you will get an opportunity to see at first hand the work of dedicated conservationists working to preserve the habitat of the orang-utans. Although the park is protected by the national government the orang-utans' environment is threatened by the powerful commercial interests of oil palm industry and illegal loggers.. Therefore, responsibly organised family holidays and eco- friendly holidays to the region play an important part in educating different generations to the important role local conservationists and guides play. We help to fund and support the work of the Friends of the National Parks of Indonesia- one of the most effective but low key NGO's working in Borneo, Indonesia.

Tanjung Puting National Park is arguably the best place in Borneo to see orang-utans as it is home to the densest population of wild them (over 4,000) anywhere in the world. You will also see the rare proboscis monkey, the false gavia crocodile and a wide range of tropical birds

Whilst here you will spend your time on board a river boat (klotok), which is a great way to enter deep into the Borneo rainforest.

INDONESIA, an overview

The most famous Indonesian Island of Bali has it all, beaches, volcanoes, terraced rice fields, forests, wildlife, rich culture, resorts and surfing. However, there is so much more to be explored in Indonesia!

Known as the Islands of the Dragons, The Komodo Islands are a mini archipelago consisting of mesmerising ragged volcanic islands. Home of the mighty Komodo Dragons, the islands encompass the Komodo National Park, where these captivating reptiles roam. Clusters of rolling savannah-like russet grass hills and rusty red volcanic peaks, stunningly unspoilt white beaches, reefs appearing through crystal waters; all framed by some unforgettable sunsets.

Lying untouched by tourism, Kalimantan makes up the remote and rustic Indonesian portion of Borneo. The region features legendary dense tropical forests packed with wildlife including many different primate species and the iconic free-roaming endangered orangutan. Routes within Kalimantan are largely made up of steaming rainforest lined winding rivers, best explored by Klotok (Traditional Houseboat) through the likes of the enchanting Tanjung Puting National Park.

Known for its deep Jungles and incredible Coffee; rough and rugged Sumatra is an explorers paradise and is nature galore. This jungle filled Island is one of the last remaining places of earth to witness wild orangutans and is encompassed with sheer natural beauty.

ITINERARY

DAY 1: JAKARTA (D)

Upon arrival at Jakarta Airport, we will be met by our representative and transferred to our hotel. Welcome dinner at the hotel. Overnight in Jakarta.

Overnight Hotel.

DAY 2: JAKARTA – PANGKALAN BUN – KUMAI (B,L,D)

After breakfast at the hotel you will transfer to the airport for the morning flight to Pangkalan Bun. Upon arrival at Pangkalan Bun airport mid morning we will be met by our guide. We will continue to Kumai, the seaport and the gateway to the National Park. Upon your arrival in Kumai direct transfer to the houseboat, Lunch will provided On board before crossing Kumai river in approximately 15 minutes to reach Seikonyer river, the main river in this National Park. Cruise up the Sekonyer river, along the way you will experience vegetation around the such as the Nipa Palm and Pandanus along the banks as well as wildlife including the Proboscis monkey – an endemic animal that can only be seen in Borneo and orangutans. If time permits you will visit the Orangutan feeding in Tanjung Harapan at 3pm. Then At 4pm return back to the boat and continue boating to observe and learning more about Proboscis monkeys along the river banks.

Dinner and overnight in the Deluxe houseboat.

DAY 3: HOUSEBOAT – CAMP LEAKEY – HOUSEBOAT (B,L,D)

After breakfast we proceed upstream to PasaLat Camp. Here you will have a 1km hike (mostly on a board walk). In this camp, you will have the chance to plant endemic fruit trees for the orangutan (it is also a carbon offset program which supports the national park in planting trees around ex forest-fire areas). This program supports the national park to replanting the trees around the ex-forest fire areas and to spread up the fruit trees for the animals in this park. When the tree grows up, the trees will do photosynthesis. From this process the tree will produce the Oxygen, and the Oxygen is the payment to all the Carbon we produce in our whole life (payment of the carbon).

Return back to the houseboat as you head up to Camp Leakey, a landmark institution you will come to know on this wildlife tour in Borneo. Camp Leakey was established in 1971 by Dr Birute Galdikas and former spouse Rod Brindamour. It was named after the legendary paleo-anthropologist, Louis Leakey, who was both mentor and an inspiration to Dr. Galdikas as well as Drs. Jane Goodall and Dian Fossey. When we arrive in Camp Leakey we can learn about its history and we will trek through the jungle with the opportunity of seeing numerous orangutans, gibbons, wild pigs and birds. We will have lunch back on the boat and will head to a feeding platform at Camp Leakey for 2pm (where the rangers will feed the semi-wild orangutans with banana on the feeding platform). At 16.00, back to the boat where we will continue down to Pondok Ambung. If time permits before dinner we can head out to the forest in search of nocturnal fauna like Tarsiers, tarantulas etc.

Overnight Deluxe Houseboat

DAY 4: PONDOK TANGGUY – TANJUNG HARAPAN (B,L,D)

After breakfast we will boat down to the second camp - Pondok Tangguy - to see another orangutan feeding station. We visit the feeding for 9am. After visiting the feeding station to see more orangutan, we will head back to the boat to continue boating down to Tanjung Harapan village to see the Malayan settlement activities. Lunch is provided on board before crossing into Tanjung Harapan Camp to see the last orangutan feeding at 3pm. We head further downstream to Nipa Palm where you get the chance to see thousands of fireflies.

Overnight Deluxe Houseboat

DAY 5: TREKKING IN TANJUNG HARAPAN – CANOE – NIPA PALM (B, L, D)

After breakfast you will be able to explore some more of the forest with a trekking trip from Tanjung Harapan to Sungai Buluh (this will take about 3 hours). Upon arrival in Sungai Buluh you will head out on a motorized canoe to explore some more of the river before heading back to the houseboat.

Lunch is provided on board and you will have an afternoon at leisure – spotting Proboscis monkey groups around the river bank. We will head back to the Nipa Palm area for dinner and overnight.

Overnight Deluxe Houseboat

DAY 6: KUMAI – PANGKALAN BUN - JAKARTA (B, D)

After breakfast we will boat back to Kumai and transfer to Pangkalan Bun Airport for our next destination. If there is time we will be able to see the town, its colourful market and one or two key landmark buildings. At the airport you will say goodbye to our guide before flying back to Jakarta.

Upon arrival in Jakarta you will be met by our representative and transferred to your hotel. A farewell dinner will be served at the hotel to celebrate this wildlife holiday to Borneo and our better understanding of the orangutans (our nearest cousins) and the conflict between their sanctuary and our quest for ever more commercial development, which means that the rain forests in Indonesia are still being destroyed at a rate of the size 300 football pitch per hour!

Overnight Hotel

DAY 7: JAKARTA (B)

Breakfast at hotel, before continuing for your international flight home or beach extension at Tiger Island.

End of trip.

OPTIONAL BEACH EXTENSION

DAY 7- 10: TIGER ISLAND BEACH STAY (B, L, D)

Free at leisure with daily breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.

DAY 11: TIGER ISLAND-DEPARTURE (B)

Breakfast at hotel then transfer to airport.

End of trip.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS HAVE SAID

'We had an experience of a lifetime and we will be back in a couple of years. We enjoyed every minute, saw lots of Orang-utans and proboscis monkeys.

Learned about culture and environment'
